

Psychology – Year 13

Autumn Term
What we are studying	What questions can you ask to support your child and stretch their thinking?	What do I do if my child was absent, or I want them to do extra work?
Half terms 1 and 2 Gender Content: This unit explore how individuals develop their gender identity. As well as psychological explanations, the development of gender identity is also approached by biological and social explanations. Eating behaviour Content: This unit encompasses what motivates our food choice, dieting and disordered eating habits which may lead to	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What term is used for a mismatch between a person’s sex and the gender they feel they are? 2. Do high levels of androgyny lead to better or worse psychological wellbeing? 3. What is chromosomal structure for males and females? 4. Approximately how many females have Turner’s syndrome? 5. According to Piaget, children are no longer e _____ in the gender constancy stage. 6. How old are children when they develop an elaborate schema for both genders? 7. What evidence did Freud use to illustrate the Oedipus complex? 8. Outline one strength of the social learning theory when explaining gender identity. 9. Name three South Pacific cultural groups studied by Mead. 10. Is the BST (brain area) bigger in men or women? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Why is neophobia described as adaptive? 2. What is meant by flavour-flavour learning? 3. Describe Nunn et al’s findings in their research about the biological 	Your child can complete online based work on Seneca or uplearn for psychology (*note – uplearn is not currently available for eating behaviour).  The screenshot shows a mobile application interface for 'Psychology: AQA A Level'. At the top, there is a purple header with the text 'Psychology: AQA A Level →'. Below this is a navigation bar with icons for a grid, a calendar, a document, and a lightning bolt. A dropdown menu is open, showing '10 Option 1: Gender (A2 only)' with a radio button next to it. Below the dropdown is a green bar with the 'Up LEARN' logo. The word 'Gender' is visible in the bottom right corner of the screenshot. anorexia nervosa or obesity.

- explanations of anorexia nervosa.
4. What effects does leptin have on hunger and satiety levels?
 5. What effects does ghrelin have on hunger and satiety levels?
 6. Which relationship within the family does the family systems theory focus on?
 7. What is one strength of the family systems theory?
 8. According to social learning theory, when are models more likely to be imitated?
 9. What is meant by an irrational belief in the context of anorexia nervosa?
 10. What does the spiral model argue about dieting?

Psychology: AQA A Level →

Grid Calendar Document Lightning Bolt

^ 13 Option 2: Eating Behaviour (A2 only)

∨ 13.1 Eating Behaviour (A2 only)